EUSBSR
EU STRATEGY
FOR THE BALTIC
SEA REGION

POLICY AREA 'EDUCATION'

BSR SOCIAL INNOVATION – an emerging flagship

Second workshop where we continue to design together

6 May 2022 at 09.00 to 12.00 (CEST) using ZOOM

PROGRAMME

09.00 Welcome
- framing the workshop, introduce the programme and MURAL

09.15 Who are we taking part in the workshop and what expectations do we have?
- discussions in groups of four using MURAL

09.30 What is a macroregional strategy and what is a flagship?
Anders Bergström, EUSBSR Policy Area Coordinator, PA Education, Science and Social affairs

09.45 BSR Social innovation – where are we in the design process?
Magda Leszczyna-Rzucidło, EUSBSR Policy Area Coordinator, PA Tourism

10.15 BREAK

10.30 Competence Centres for Social Innovation – national and European
- introducing these new support structures
Asta Jurgutė, International cooperation specialist, European Social Fund Agency Lithuania
Anna Tengqvist, International Coordinator, Forum for Social Innovation Sweden

11.00 Co-creation session
- working in groups of four using MURAL answering questions related to the emerging flagship and where this collaboration can support social innovation complementing what will be offered by the European and nation competence centres

11.45 Reflections and agree on next steps

12.00 Closure